

THE PRESIDENT OF THE JURY

From production bases in London and Berlin, Alex enjoys being at the centre of the international film production industry through his two production companies Pistachio Pictures and Red Sun Pictures, companies which have produced films selected by over one hundred festivals including London, Edinburgh, Palm Springs, Vancouver, Manhattan and Dresden while working with partners including Lionsgate, Paramount, Sony, BBC, Film4, UK Film Council, ARTE, etc.

Ed Zwick's Defiance starring Daniel Craig and Jamie Bell and Collaborator starring David Morse and Olivia Williams are among recent productions and collaborations, along with Susan Jacobson's suspense thriller The Holding starring Kierston Wareing, David Bradley and Vincent Regan which was released through Lionsgate in 2011. Next up are the action thriller Replay filming in Canada in Autumn 2012, the London-set psychological thriller Daydream Believer, and Cloud Atlas currently in post production as UK Producer, directed by Tom Tykwer and the Wachowski siblings and starring Tom Hanks and Halle Berry.

Alex is the British feature film producer member of the "IQ", The International Quorum of Motion Picture Producers. He advises BAFTA / Roccliffe events both as an individual as well as through Pistachio Pictures, frequently attending events and festivals including Pantin Film Festival, France, Britspotting Festival in Berlin and the U.S. International Film and Video Festival as a jury member or panelist.

Highlights include attending the Binger Film Lab in Amsterdam and working on films with directors Stephen Daldry and Quentin Tarantino.

ALEX BODEN

Producer / CEO, Film & TV Production

www.pistachio.co.uk

www.red-sun-pictures.com

ALMERIA COLLECTION

The first European movie to rehabilitate decorations & landscapes of the spaghetti westerns

